Of Sacred Liturgy

The Excellence of Holy Mass “Who does not know that what has been handed down by Peter, the Prince of the Apostles, to the Roman Church is still observed unto this day, and must be observed by all?” (St. Pope Innocent I, 402-417) Thus has the Church in the course of time set the jewel of the Holy Sacrifice in the most magnificent manner, with heavenly wisdom, for the praise of God and the edification of the faithful, surrounded with precious decorations of holy prayers, hymns, lessons and ceremonies, and enveloped in a mystic veil in order to fill the hearts and minds of the faithful with religious awe and profound reverence. (Fr. Nicholas Gihl, The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Dogmatically, Liturgically and Aesthetically Explained, pp. 335-36 (1877))

At Mass we are present first and foremost to God. If we do not turn our attention radically toward God, our faith becomes lukewarm, distracted, and uncertain. ... I gradually enter into the Eucharistic mystery and understand that the Mass is a unique moment in the life of a priest and of the faithful. Divine worship lifts us out of the ordinary. Through the eyes of a child, the priest is absorbed by Christ at the moment when, facing East, he lifts the consecrated Host toward heaven. (Robert Cardinal Sarah, God or Nothing, p.50)

The Ceremonies of the Mass lead to the order, beauty, and adornment of divine worship. They are outward forms of worship, the outcome of an interior emotion, expressions of religious thought and sentiments. “They who pray, bend the knee, raise the hands or prostrate themselves to the ground, thereby expressing outwardly what they feel inwardly. Their invisible will and the intention of their hearts are indeed known to God. Although their interior sentiments need not be made known to Him by such signs, by their means we are to pray and sigh more humbly and more ardently.” (St. Augustine) Ceremonies signify the mysteries of Christian faith and life: mixing the water and wine, washing the hands at the Offertory, placing the hands over the oblation before the Consecration, the breaking of the Host and dropping a small Particle into the chalice, the frequent Signing of the Cross. (Fr. Nicholas Gihl, pp.340-41)

The Spirit of the Liturgy The spirit of the liturgy requires our conformity to established paths and practices, whose disciplines I must learn and to which I must humbly submit, yet leads to the joyful discovery and celebration of Christ alive and working in His Church, which gives us a foretaste of and an appetite for the eternal and unending joy of the heavenly liturgy. “Forgetting about God is the most imminent danger of our age. As against this, the liturgy should be setting up a sign of God’s presence.” (Pope Benedict XVI) Neither Claudel nor St. Augustine stumbled across liturgy self-consciously fashioned to speak to the peculiarities of their times; they encountered the worship of Christ by His Church in all its richness. Thus they found Christ. (Alcuin Reid, Monastère Saint-Benoît, Diocese of Frjus-Toulon, France, in Sacred Liturgy, pp 226-27; p. 235, (2013))

The Language of Celebration of Sacred Mysteries From the first four centuries, directed and preserved from injurious blunders by the Holy Ghost, the Roman Church has not been shown to have conducted her liturgical worship in any other than the three languages of the inscription of the Cross, Hebrew, Greek, and Latin. By divine dispensation, destined and consecrated on the Cross for the liturgical use of the Church, they proclaimed the dignity, power and glory of the Redeemer. It is most elevating and inspiring to offer sacrifice and pray in the language of the primitive Christians, our forefathers, innumerable saints, and bishops and priests of all times. The celebration of the mystic Sacrifice calls for a language elevated, majestic, dignified, and consecrated, answered by the Latin tongue with its dignity and gravity, clearness and precision, and richness and euphony. Thus it points to the unfathomable and unspeakable depth of the mystery of the Altar, serves as a mystic veil for the mysteries of the Holy Sacrifice, and protects against contempt and desecration. So, too, was ancient Hebrew the language of the divine worship that our Lord and His disciples attended, thus approving a distinct language for divine worship. (Fr. Nicholas Gihl, pp. 319n.2-325)

Liturgical Orientation Turning to the east remains essential. Looking at the priest has no importance. What matters is looking together at the Lord, toward the crucifix. Facing east is linked with the sign of the Son of Man, announcing the Lord's Second Coming. In this way we obey the ancient call to prayer. (Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, The Spirit of the Liturgy, p.81 (2000))

Stillness We cannot take stillness too seriously. If someone were to ask me what the liturgical life begins with, I should answer: with learning stillness. Without it, everything remains superficial, vain. Were we to approach stillness on the level of aesthetics, we should spoil everything. What we are striving for is something very grave, very important, and unfortunately sorely neglected: the prerequisite of the liturgical holy act. (Fr. Romano Guardini, Preparing Yourself for Mass, p.12 (1939, Sophia Press (1993)))

Reception of Holy Communion “It is the Lord!” These are the words of the Apostle John on the shore of the Sea of Gennesaret. Only John recognized the Lord. May that bishops and faithful please awaken and recognize that in each of these little Hosts, It is the Lord in His infinite majesty and sanctity of God. Unfortunately, there has spread a method of distribution of Communion called “in the hand,” which really is a cause, an effective cause of the diminishing consciousness and the faith that “It is the Lord!” Handling the Host, as a chip, over time this diminishes the consciousness that this little Host is extraordinary. It is not a thing or even a holy thing, but Someone. This is our God. The greatest treasure which we have here on earth, our Lord, Eucharistic Lord, in the Host, is becoming so banalized, so exposed to ignorance. And the most grievous aspect is the loss of numerous fragments of the Host. And we continue quietly and no one shouts and says stop, and everyone says okay, we can continue with this. It is incredible. It is a shame. I have the impression that we have lost very much the Christo-centrism in liturgy, in our life, in our church life. (Bishop Athanasius Schneider, Interview with The Paulus Institute, Feb. 14, 2016)

It is now time to evaluate carefully the practice of Communion-in-the-hand and, if necessary, to abandon what was actually never called for in the Vatican II documents, [but] was introduced as an abuse. Now, more than ever, it is necessary to help the faithful renew a living faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharistic Species. (Malcolm Cardinal Ranjith, Preface, Dominus Est, M. Rev. Athanasius Schneider, p.17)

Summorum Pontificum Up to our own times, it has been the constant concern of supreme pontiffs to ensure that the Church of Christ offers a worthy ritual to the Divine Majesty, “to the praise and glory of His name,” and “to the benefit of all His Holy Church.”

Since time immemorial it has been necessary - as it is also for the future - to maintain the principle according to which “each particular Church must concur with the universal Church, not only as regards the doctrine of the faith and the sacramental signs, but also as regards the usages universally accepted by uninterrupted apostolic tradition, which must be observed not only to avoid errors but also to transmit the integrity of the faith, because the Church's law of prayer corresponds to her law of faith.”

Apostolic Letter issued motu proprio,
Pope Benedict XVI, July 7, 2007

I. MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

Picture then the High Priest leaving the sacristy of heaven for the altar of Calvary. He has already put on the vestment of our human nature, the maniple of our suffering, the stole of priesthood, the chasuble of the Cross. Calvary is his cathedral; the rock of Calvary is the altar stone; the sun turning to red is the sanctuary lamp; Mary and John are the living side altars; the Host is His Body; the wine is His Blood. He is upright as Priest, yet prostrate as Victim. His Mass is about to begin.

THE CONFITEOR

The Archbishop makes his confession, bowing deeply, in order to worthily represent here the High Priest Jesus Christ:

CONFITEOR Deo omnipoténti, beátæ Mariæ semper Vírgini, beáto Michaéli Archángelo, beáto Joanni Baptístæ, sanctis Apóstolis Petro et Paulo, ómnibus Sanctis, et vobis, fratres: quia peccávi nimis cogitatíone, verbo et ópere: [he strikes his breast three times, saying] mea culpa, mea culpa, mea máxima culpa. I confess to Almighty God, to blessed Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, to all the Saints, and to you, brethren, that I have sinned exceedingly, in thought, word and deed: [he strikes his breast three times] through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, all the Saints, and you, brethren, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

*The Archbishop received his maniple, which is placed on his left arm.
The Deacon, and Subdeacon say the Confiteor, and the people join silently:*

℞. I confess to Almighty God, etc. [as above, except “and you, father” instead of “and you, brethren.”]

℣. Misereátur vestri omnípotens Deus, et dimíssis peccátis vestris, perdúcat vos ad vitam ætérnam.

LESSON

Ecclus. 24: 23-31

The Subdeacon sings the Lesson:

omnis spes vitae et virtutis. Transite ad me omnes, qui concupiscitis me,

Spírítus enim meus super mel dulcis,
et hereditas mea super mel et favum.
Memoria mea in generatione

As the vine I have brought forth a pleasant odour, and my flowers are the fruit of honour and riches. I am the mother of fair love, and of fear, and of knowledge, and of holy hope.
In me is all grace of the way and of the truth, in me is all hope of life and of virtue. Come over to me, all ye that desire me, and be filled with my fruits; for my spirit is sweet above honey, and my inheritance above honey and the honeycomb. My shall yet thirst. He that hearkeneth to me shall not be confounded, and they that work by me shall not sin.

They that explain me shall have life

The Archbishop then reads and the Schola sings the following prayer in Eastertide:

Allelúia, allelúia. V. Magníficat hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

Alleluia. All generations shall call me Blessed, because God hath regarded the humility of His handmaid.

The Archbishop says the Munda cor meum seated at the throne, and the deacon says it kneeling at the foot of the throne.

MUNDA cor meum ac lábia mea, omnípotens Deus, qui lábia Isaíae

Cleanse my heart and my lips, O
Almighty God, Who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaias with a burning coal; through Thy gracious mercy so purify me that I may worthily proclaim Thy holy Gospel.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Deacon takes the Book from the Altar, and kneeling asks the blessing of the Archbishop, saying:

Jube, Dómine, benedícere.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to bless me.

The Archbishop replies:

Dóminus sit in corde tuo, et in lábiis

GOSPEL
Jn: 19: 25-27

The faithful make the sign of the Cross upon the forehead, lips, and heart to declare that they will never be ashamed of the Word of God, and remain standing. The Deacon incenses the Book three times and the Servers respond. The Deacon makes the sign of the Cross on the Gospel to be sung, then on his forehead, mouth, and breast, and sings:

Ψ. Sequéntia sancti Evangélii
secúndum Joannem. †
R̄. Glória tibi, Dómine.

Continuation of the holy Gospel according to John. †
R̄. Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

The Deacon sings the Gospel:

IN illo témpore: Stabant juxta crucem
Jesu mater ejus, et soror matris ejus,
María Cléophæ, et María Magdaléne.
Cum vidisset ergo Jesus matrem, et discípulum stantem, quem diligébat, dicit matri suæ: Múlier, ecce filius tuus. Deínde dicit discípulo: Ecce mater tua. Et ex illa hora accépit eam discípulus in sua.

At that time, there stood by the cross of Jesus, His mother, and His mother's sister Mary of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalen. When Jesus therefore had seen His mother and the disciple standing, whom He loved, He saith to His mother:
Woman, behold thy son. After that He saith to the disciple: Behold, thy mother. And from that hour the disciple took her to his own.

At the end of the Gospel the Ministers answer:

Laus tibi, Christe.

Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

The Subdeacon carries the Book to the Archbishop, who kisses the Book, saying:

Per evangélica dicta, deleántur nostra delicta.

By the words of the Gospel may our sins be blotted out.

The Archbishop is incensed by the Assistant Priest.

Lk. 1: 47,49

The Archbishop reads the Offertory verse at the throne, and the Schola chants:

EXSULTÁVIT spírítus meus in Deo salutári meo: quia fecit mihi magna qui potens est et sanctum nomen ejus. Allelúia.	My spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour; because He that is mighty hath done great things to me: and holy is His name. Alleluia.

OFFERING OF THE HOST AND CHALICE

The Archbishop washes his hands at the throne and goes to the Altar. He takes the paten with the host, brought by the Deacon, which he offers, saying:

SÚSCIPE, sancte Pater, omnipotens atérne Deus, hanc immaculatam hóstiam, quam ego	Accept, O holy Father, Almighty and Eternal God, this spotless host, which I, Your unworthy servant, offer to You, my living and true God, to atone for my numberless sins, offences, and negligences; on behalf of all here present and likewise for all faithful Christians living and dead, that it may profit me and them as a means of salvation to life everlasting. Amen.

The Archbishop makes the Sign of the Cross with the paten, and places the host upon the corporal. The Deacon and Subdeacon prepare the chalice, mixing wine and water. Blessing the water before it is poured, the Archbishop says:

DEUS, ☩ qui humánæ substántiæ dignitátem mirabíliter condidísti et mirabílius reformásti: da nobis, per hujus aquæ et vini mystérium, ejus divinitátis esse consórtes, qui humanitátis nostræ fieri dignátus est párticeps, Jesus Christus, Fílius tuus, Dóminus noster: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitáte Spíritus Sancti Deus: per ómnia sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

O God, Who in creating human nature hast wonderfully dignified it, and still more wonderfully reformed it; grant that by the Mystery of this water and wine, we may be made partakers of His divine nature, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

The deacon pours wine into the chalice, and the subdeacon pours in water. The Archbishop offers it:

OFFÉRIMUS tibi, Dómine, cálicem salutáris, tuam deprecántes cleméntiam: ut in conspéctu divínæ majestátis tuæ, pro nostra et totius mundi salúte, cum odóre suavitátis ascéndat. Amen.

We offer unto Thee, O Lord, the Chalice of salvation, beseeching Thy clemency that it may ascend before Thy divine majesty as a sweet odor, for our salvation and for that of the whole world. Amen.

Meanwhile, the Archbishop bowing slightly then says:

IN SPIRITU humilitatis et in ánimo contríto suscipiámur a te, Dómine: et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspéctu tuo hódie, ut pláceat tibi, Dómine Deus.

In a humble spirit and contrite of heart, may we be received by Thee, O Lord; and may our sacrifice be so offered this day in Thy sight as to be pleasing to Thee, O Lord God.

Looking up to heaven and extending his hands, he says:

VENI, santificátor ætérne Deus: et bénedic ꝥ hoc sacrificium, tuo sancto nómini præparátum. Come Thou, the Sanctifier, O Almighty and Eternal God, and bless ꝥ this sacrifice prepared for the glory of Thy holy Name.

INCENSING THE OFFERINGS

The offerings and the Altar are incensed:

PER intercessionem Michaélis Archángeli, stantis a dextris altáris incénsi, et ómnium electórum suórum, incénsium istud dignétur Dóminus bene ꝥ dícere, et in odórem suavitatís accípere. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen. Through the intercession of Blessed Michael the Archangel, standing at the right hand of the Altar of Incense and of all His elect, may the Lord vouchsafe to bless ꝥ this incense and to receive it as an odor of sweetness. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Receiving the thurible from the Deacon, he incenses the bread and wine, saying:

INCÉNSUM istud a te benedíctum, ascéndat ad te, Dómine: et descéndat super nos misericórdia tua. May this incense which Thou has blessed, O Lord, ascend to Thee, and may Thy mercy descend upon us.

Incensing the Altar, he says - Psalm 140: 2-4:

DIRIGÁTUR, Domine, orátio mea, sicut incénsium, in conspéctu tuo: elevátio mánuum meárum sacrificium vespertínium. Pone, Dómine, custódiam ori meo, et óstium circumstántiæ lábiis meis: ut non declínet cor meum in verba malítiae, ad excusándas excusatiónes in peccátis. Let my prayer, O Lord, ascend like incense in Thy sight; and the lifting up of my hands be as an evening sacrifice. Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and a door about my lips: and incline not my heart to evil words: to make excuses in sins.

Giving the thurible to the Deacon, he says:

ACCÉNDAT in nobis Dóminus ignem sui amóris, et flámmam ætérnæ caritatís. Amen. May the Lord enkindle within us the fire of His love and the flame of everlasting charity. Amen.

The Archbishop and ministers are incensed;

Religious, clergy in front pews stand and are incensed –

The laity are incensed.

After incensing :

The Archbishop washes his hands, and says the Lavabo:

LAVÁBO inter innocéntes manus meas: et circúmdabo altáre tuum, Dómine. Ut áudiam vocem laudis: et enárrem univérsa mirabília tua. Dómine, diléxi decórem domus tuæ: et locum habitatiónis glóriæ tuæ. Ne perdas cum ímpiis, Deus: ánimam meam, et cum viris sánguinum vitam meam. In quorum mánibus iniquitátes sunt: délixera eórum repléta est munéribus. Ego autem in innocéntia mea ingrèssus sum: rédime me, et miserére mei. Pes meus stetit in dirécto: in ecclésiis benedicám te, Dómine. Glória Patri, et Fílio, et Spirítui Sancto. Sicut erat in princípío, et nunc, et semper, et in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

I WILL WASH my hands among the innocent, and will encompass Thine Altar, O Lord. That I may hear the voice of Thy praise and tell of all Thy wondrous works. O Lord, I have loved the beauty of Thy house, and the place where Thy glory dwelleth. Take not away my soul, O God, with the wicked, nor my life with men of blood. In whose hands are iniquities, their right hand is filled with gifts. But I have walked in my innocence; redeem me, and have mercy on me. My foot hath stood in the direct way; in the churches I will bless Thee, O Lord. Glory be. Amen.

PRAYER TO THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Bowing down at the center of the Altar hands joined upon it, the Archbishop says:

SÚSCIPE, sancta trínitas, hanc oblatiõem, quam tibi offérimus ob memóriam passiónis, resurrectióis, et ascensióis Jesu Christi Dómini nostri, et in honórem beátæ Mariæ semper Vírginis, et beáti Joánnis Baptístæ, et sanctórum Apostolórum Petri et Pauli, et istórum, et ómnium Sanctórum: ut illis proficiat ad honórem, nobis autem ad salútem: et illi pro nobis intercédere dignéntur in cælis, quorum memóriam ágimus in terris. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

Receive, O Holy Trinity, this oblation which we make to Thee in memory of the Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ; and in honor of Blessed Mary ever Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of these and of all the Saints, that it avail to their honor and to our salvation: and that they whose memory we celebrate on earth may vouchsafe for us in heaven. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

ORATE FRATRES

The Archbishop kisses the Altar, and turning to the people says the first two words audibly, then returns to facing the Altar. Thus, the Archbishop and people bind together in the sacrifice.

ORÁTE, fratres: ut meum ac vestrum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem.

Pray, brethren, that my Sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

The Ministers respond:

We who offer to Thy majesty without blemish, beseech Thee, O Lord, that our hearts may be kindled by that divine fire which so ineffably inflamed the heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Through the same our Lord.

THE CANON OF THE MASS

For the Church and Ecclesiastical Authorities

TE igitur, clementíssime Pater, per Jesum Christum Fílium tuum, Dóminum nostrum, súpplices rogámus, ac pétimus, uti accépta hábeas, et benedícas, hæc ☩ dona, hæc ☩ múnera, hæc ☩ sancta sacrificia illibáta, in primis, quæ tibi offerimus pro Ecclésia tua sancta cathólica: quam pacificáre, custodíre, adunáre, et régere dignéris toto orbe terrárum: una cum fámulo tuo Papa nostro Francisco, et Antístite nostro Donaldó, et ómnibus orthodoxis, atque cathólicæ et apostólicæ fidei cultóribus.

Wherefore, O most merciful Father, we humbly pray and beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ Thy Son, Our Lord, to accept and to bless these ☩ gifts, these ☩ presents, these ☩ holy unspotted sacrifices, which we offer up to Thee, in the first place, for Thy Holy Catholic Church, that it may please Thee to grant her peace, to preserve, unite, and govern her throughout the world; as also for Thy servant Francis, our Pope, and Donald, our Bishop, and for all orthodox believers and all who profess the Catholic and Apostolic faith.

Commemoration of the Living

MEMÉNTO, Domine, famulórum famularúmque tuárum N ... et N ... et ómnium circumstántium, quorum tibi fides cógnota est, et nota devótio, pro quibus tibi offerimus: vel qui tibi offerunt hoc sacrificium laudis, pro se, suisque ómnibus: pro redemptióne et incolumitátis suæ: tibi que reddunt vota sua ætérno Deo, vivo et vero.

Be mindful O Lord, of Thy servants and handmaids N ... and N ... and of all here present, whose faith and devotion are known to Thee, for whom we offer, or who offer up to Thee this Sacrifice of praise for themselves and all those dear to them, for the redemption of their souls and the hope of their safety and salvation: who now pay their vows to Thee, the everlasting, living and true God.

Invocation of the Saints

COMMUNICÁNTES, et memóriam venerántes, in primis glorióse semper Vírginis Maríæ, Genitricis Dei et Dómini nostri Jesu Christi: sed et beáti Joseph ejúsdem Vírginis Sponsi, et beatórum Apostolórum ac Mártyrum tuórum, Petri et Pauli, Andréæ, Jacóbi, Joánnis, Thomæ, Grant for the sake of their merits and prayers that in all things we may be guarded and helped by Thy protection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS AT THE CONSECRATION

Oblation of the Victim to God

Spreading his hands over the oblation, he says:

HANC IGITUR oblatiónem servitútis nostræ, sed et cunctæ familiæ tuæ, quæsumus, Dómine, ut placátus accípias: diésque nostros in tua pace dispónas, atque ab ætérna damnatióne nos éripi, et in electórum tuórum júbeas grege numerári. Per Christum Deumóminum nostrum. Amen.

O Lord, we beseech Thee, graciously to accept this oblation of our service and that of Thy whole household. Order our days in Thy peace, and command that we be rescued from eternal damnation and numbered in the flock of Thine elect. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

QUAM oblationem tu, Deus, in ómnibus, Qæsumus, bene † díctam, adscríp † tam, ra † tam, rationábilem, acceptabilémque fácere dignéris: ut nobis Cor † pus, et San † † guis fiat dilectíssimi Fílii tui Dómini nostri Jesu Christi.

The Archbishop takes the host and holds it between his index fingers and thumbs, and says the effective words of Consecration in the person of Christ:

Words of Consecration and Elevation

QUI pridie quam paterétur accépit panem in sanctus ac venerábiles manus suas (he raises his eyes to heaven),

Who, the day before He suffered, took bread into His Holy and venerable hands, and having lifted up His eyes to heaven, to Thee, God, His Almighty Father, giving thanks to Thee, blessed it ✠, broke it, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Take and eat ye all of this:

The Archbishop bows low, and says reverently:

HOC EST ENIM CORPUS MEUM.

FOR THIS IS MY BODY.

The Archbishop immediately genuflects in adoration of the Sacred Host; the bells are rung once. Rising, he elevates the Host. The bells are rung again. He genuflects again. Bells are rung a third time. After this consecration, the Archbishop never disjoins his forefingers and thumbs except to take the Host in Communion, until the washing of his fingers. He then uncovers the chalice and says:

SÍMILI modo postquam coenátum est,

In like manner, after He had supped,

The Archbishop takes the chalice in both hands, his forefingers and thumbs still touching, and continues:

accípiens et hunc præclárum Cálicem in sanctas ac venerábiles manus suas: item tibi grátias agens, bene ✠ díxit, dedítque discípulis suis, dicens: Accípíte, et bíbite ex eo omnes:

Taking also into His holy and venerable hands this excellent chalice, again giving thanks to Thee, He blessed it ✠, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Take and drink ye all of this:

The Archbishop bends over the chalice and says:

HIC EST ENIM CALIX SÁNGUINIS
MEI, NOVI ET ÆTÉRNI
TESTAMÉNTI:

FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD, OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL

MYSTÉRIUM FÍDEI:
QUI PRO VOBIS ET PRO MULTIS

PECCATÓRUM.

Hæc quotiescúmque fecéritis, in mei memóriam faciétis.

The Archbishop immediately genuflects in adoration of the Precious Blood, and the bells are rung. Then he rises and elevates the chalice, and the bells are rung again. He places the chalice on the corporal, genuflects, and the bells are rung a third time.

The choir sings the Benedictus (last part of the Sanctus).

Let us contemplate the profound mystical Sacrifice that has occurred.

Oblation of the Victim to God

With hands extended the Archbishop continues silently.

UNDE et memores, Dómine, nos servi tui, sed et plebs tua sancta, ejúsdem Christi Fílii tui Dómini nostri tam beátæ passiónis necnon et ab ínferis resurrectiónis, sed et in cælos gloriósæ ascensiónis: offérimus præcláræ majestáti tuæ de tuis donis, ac datis, Bringing his hands together, the Archbishop makes the Sign of the Cross five times, saying.

HÓSTIAM ☩ puram, hóstiam ☩ sanctam, hóstiam ☩ immaculátem, Panem ☩ sanctum vitæ æternæ, et Cálicem ☩ salútis perpétuæ.

The Archbishop extends his hands and continues:

SUPRA quæ propitio ac seréno vultu respícere dignéris: et accépta habére, sicuti accépta habére dignátus es múnera púeri tui justí Abel, et sacrificium Patriárchæ nostril Abrahæ: et quod tibi óbtulit summus sacérdos tuus Melchisedech, sanctum sacrificium,

As often as ye shall do these things, ye shall do them in remembrance of me.

Wherefore, O Lord, we Thy servants, as also Thy holy people, calling to mind the blessed Passion of this same Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, likewise His Resurrection from the grave, and also His glorious Ascension into heaven, do offer unto Thy most sovereign Majesty out of the gifts Thou hast bestowed upon us.

A pure ☩ Victim, a holy ☩ Victim, which is holy, an immaculate ☩ Victim, the holy Bread ☩ of eternal life, and the Chalice ☩ of everlasting Salvation.

Upon which do Thou vouchsafe to look upon them with a propitious and serene countenance, and to accept them, as Thou wert graciously pleased to gifts of Thy just servant Abel, and the sacrifice of our patriarch Abraham, and that which Thy high priest Melchisedech offered to Thee, a holy Sacrifice, a spotless Victim.

The Archbishop bows and places his joined hands on the Altar saying:

SÚPPLICES te rogamus, omnipotens Deus: jube hæc perférrí per manus sancti Angeli tui in sublime altáre tuum, in conspéctu divínæ majestátis tuæ: ut quotquot ex hac altáris participatióne sacrosánctum Fílii tui, Cor ꝥ pus, et Sán ꝥ guinem sumpsérimus, omni benedictióne cælésti et grátia repleámur. Per eúndem Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

We humbly beseech Thee, Almighty God, to command that these our offerings be borne by the hands of Thy holy Angel to Thine Altar on high, in the sight of Thy Divine Majesty, that as many of us as at this Altar shall partake of and receive the most holy Body ꝥ and Blood ꝥ of Thy Son may be filled with every heavenly blessing and grace. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS AFTER THE CONSECRATION

Commemoration of the Dead

MEMÉNTO etiam, Dómine, famulórum famularúmque tuárum N. et N., qui nos præcessérunt cum signo fidei, et dórmíunt in somno pacis.

Be mindful also, O Lord, of Thy servants and handmaids N. and N., who are gone before us with the sign of faith and who sleep the sleep of peace.

To these, O Lord, and to all who rest in Christ, grant, we beseech Thee, a place of refreshment, light and peace. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Invocation of the Saints

The Archbishop strikes his breast, says the first three words aloud, and then continues silently:

NOBIS quoque peccatóribus fámulis tuis, de multítudine miseratiónum tuárum sperántibus, partem áliquam, et societátem donáre dignéris, cum tuis sanctis Apóstolis et Martíribus: cum Joáinne, Stéphano, Matthía, Bárnaba, Ignátio, Alexándro, Marcellíno, Petro, Felicitáte, Perpétua, Agatha, Lúcia, Agnéte, Cæcília, Anastásia, et company we pray Thee to admit us, not considering our merits, but of Thine own free pardon.

Final Doxology of the Canon and Minor Elevation

The Canon is closed and crowned by this prayer. The Archbishop joins his hands and signs the sign of the Cross three times, representing Christ's three prayers upon the Cross, over the Host and the Chalice, saying:

Per Christum Dóminum nostrum.

Through Christ our Lord.

Per quem hæc ómnia, Dómine, semper bona creas, sancti ✠ ficas, vivi ✠ ficas, bene ✠ dicas, et præstas nobis.

Through whom, O Lord, Thou dost always create, sanctify ✠, quicken ✠, bless ✠, and bestow upon us all these good things.

The Archbishop uncovers the chalice and genuflects. Holding the Host in his right hand and the chalice in his left, he signs himself five times over the chalice, saying:

PER ip ✠ sum, et cum ip ✠ so, et in ip ✠ so, est tibi Deo Patri ✠ omnipoténti, in unitáte Spiritus ✠ Sancti, omnis honor, et glória.

Through Him ✠, and with Him ✠, and in Him ✠, be unto thee, God the Father ✠ almighty, in the unity of the Holy ✠ Ghost, all honor and glory.

Replacing the Host and covering the chalice, he genuflects, and rising sings aloud, bringing an end to the Canon:

Per ómnia sæcula sæculórum.

For ever and ever.

Prayer for Peace

DÓMINE Jesu Christi, Fili Dei vivi, qui ex voluntáte Patris, cooperánte Spíritu Sancto, per mortem tuam mundum vivificásti: libera me per hoc sacrosánctum Corpus et Sánguinem tuum ab omnibus iniquitátibus meis, et univérsis malis: et fac me tuis semper inhærére mandátis, et a te numquam separári permittas: Qui cum eódem Deo Patre, et Spíritu Sancto vivis et regnas, Deus, in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, Who, according to the will of the Father, through the cooperation of the Holy Ghost, hast by Thy death given life to the world: deliver me by this, Thy most sacred Body and Blood, from all my iniquities and from all evils; and make me always adhere to Thy commandments and never suffer me to be separated from Thee. Who with the same God the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest, God, world without end. Amen.

Prayer for Grace

PERCÉPTIO corporis tui, Dómine Jesu Christe, quod ego indígnus súmeré præsumo, non mihi provéniat in judícium et condemnatióem: sed pro tua pietáte prosit mihi ad tutaméntum mentis et córporis, et ad medélam percipiéndam: Qui vivis et regnas cum Deo Patre in unitáte Spíritus Sancti, Deus, per ómnia sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

Let not the partaking of Thy Body, O Lord Jesus Christ, which I, though unworthy, presume to receive, turn to my judgment and condemnation; but through Thy goodness may it be unto me a safeguard and a remedy both of soul and body. Who with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest, God, forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYERS AT THE COMMUNION

Communion of the Archbishop

The Archbishop genuflects, and taking the Host says:

PANEM cæléstem accípíam, et nomen Dómini invocábo.

I will take the Bread of Heaven, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

Bowing and striking his breast, he says the following three times with the first words in a low voice and the bells rung three times.

DÓMINE, non sum dignus, ut inters sub tectum meum: sed tantum dic verbo, et sanábitur ánima mea.

Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

Making the sign of the cross with the Host above the paten, he says:

CORPUS Dómini nostri Jesu Christi custódiat ánimam meam in vitam ætérnam. Amen.

May the Body of Our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

He consumes the Host, uncovers the chalice, genuflects, and continues silently:

QUID retríbua[m] Dómino pro ómnibus quæ retríbuit mihi? Cálicem salutáris accíp[er]e, et nomen Dómini invocábo. Laudans invocábo Dóminum, et ab inimícis meis salvus ero.

What shall I make to the Lord for all He hath rendered unto me? I will take the Chalice of Salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord. Praising, I will call upon the Lord and shall be saved from my enemies.

He makes the Sign of the Cross with the chalice and says:

SANGUIS Dómini nostri Jesu Christi custódiat ánimam meam in vitam ætérnam. Amen.

May the Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

He receives the Precious Blood together with the Particle.

The Deacon sings the Confiteor. The Archbishop turns to the people and says:

Ÿ MISEREÁTUR vestri omnipotens Deus, et dimíssis peccáti[s] vestris, perdúcat vos ad vitam ætérnam.

Ÿ. May Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you your sins, and bring you to life everlasting.

Ř. Amen.

Ř. Amen.

Ÿ. INDULGÉNTIAM, † absolutiónem et remissionem peccatórum vestrórum tríbuat vobis omnipotens, et miséricors Dóminus.

Ÿ. May the Almighty and Merciful Lord grant you pardon, † absolution, and remission of your sins.

Ř. Amen.

Ř. Amen.

Communion of the Faithful

The Archbishop genuflects, elevates the Host, and turning towards the people says:

Ÿ. ECCE Agnus Dei, ecce qui tollit peccáta mundi.

Ÿ. Behold the lamb of God, behold Him Who taketh away the sins of the world.

Ř. DÓMINE, non sum dignus, ut intres sub tectum meum: sed tantum dic verbo, et sanábitur ánima mea. [repeated three times]

The Archbishop and Ministers distribute Holy Communion on the tongue to those kneeling at the communion rail and stations, saying to each person:

Ř Lord I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed. [repeated three times]

CORPUS Dómini nostri Jesu Christi custódiat ánimam tuam in vitam æternam. Amen.

May the Body of Our Lord Jesus Christ preserve your soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS DURING THE ABLUTIONS

After Communion the Archbishop puts any extra Hosts into the tabernacle and taking the chalice, has a server pour in wine. He drinks it and says quietly:

QUOD ore sumpsimus, Domine, pura mente capiamus: et de múnere temporáli fiat nobis semédium sempitérnum.

Grant O Lord, that what we have taken with our mouth, we may receive with a pure mind; and that from a temporal gift it may become for us an everlasting remedy.

CORPUS Tuum, Dómine, quod sumpsi, et Sanguis, quem potávi, adhæreat viscéribus meis: et præsta; ut in me non remáneat scélerum mácula, quem pura et sancta refecerunt sacraménta: Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

May Thy Body, O Lord, which I have received and Thy Blood which I have drunk, cleave to my heart, and grant that no stain of sin may remain in me; whom Thy pure and holy sacraments have refreshed. Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

He drinks the wine and water, cleans the chalice, and veils it.

The Paulus Institute for the Propagation of Sacred Liturgy

was established for the purpose of propagating the Sacred Liturgy of the Roman Catholic Church. We seek to do this by undertaking events of impact and significance in the Church. Our patron is the Apostle Saint Paul, an inspiration by his passion and perseverance and by the breadth of his work to evangelize the entire world.

Pope Benedict XVI spoke of these characteristics at his last catechesis for the Year of Saint Paul on February 4, 2009. He quoted St. John Chrysostom comparing Saint Paul to Noah: whereas Noah took planks to build a boat to save his family, Saint Paul rescued “the entire ecumene that was at the point of perishing . . . an incentive, if not a guarantee, for the reinforcement of the Christian identity of each one of us and for the rejuvenation of the entire Church.”
